

Paper - I (English Poetry and Drama)

Time allowed : Three hours

Maximum Marks : 100

Unit-I

1. Explain with reference to context any four of the following extracts adding critical remarks:
- (a) From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be,
Much pleasure, then from thee much more, must flow,
And soonest our best men with thee do go,
Rest of their bones, and soul's delivery.
- (b) Before I taught my tongue to wound
My conscience with a sinful sound,
Or had the black art to dispense,
A several sin to every sense,
But felt through all this fleshly dress
Bright shoots of everlastingness.
- (c) Your sacred plants, if here below,
Only among the plants will grow
Society is all but rude,

- To this delicious solitude
- (d) O no, it is an ever fixed marke
That lookes on tempests and is never shaken;
It is the star to every wandering barke,
Whose worths unknown, although his height be taken.
- (e) The world is still deceived with ornament,
In law, what plea so tainted and corrupt,
But, being season'd with a gracious voice,
Obscures the show of evil? In religion,
What dammed error, but some sober brow
Will bless it and approve it with a text
Hiding the grossness with fair ornament?
- (f) The quality of mercy is not strain'd,
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven.
Upon the place beneath: it is twice blessed,
It bleseth him that gives and him that takes;
This mightiest in the mightiest: it becomes
The throned monarch better than his crown.
